WHEAT VALUES WERE UN-CHANGED AT CLOSE.

Corn Has Little Support After Opening and Declines Sharply in Line With Wheat.

Wheat started out as if a buil movement was on, but later in the session was under heavy selling pressure. The net result of the day's trading was unchanged prices. Foreign markets were strong and receipts were light. Shorts who be level the export buying would be continued were the best supporters of vanues at the opening. Long stuff came out in the last hour and sales of more than helf a millen bushels wheel out all of the early gains. The May option closed unchanged after gaining is:

Corn was duil and without feature. There was some strength at the opening, but outsiders were inactive and the cash and export demand was moverate. May declined be.

SOUTHERN CATTLE — The usual Saturday supply of quarantine cattle were on sale, amounting to 5 enrs and a total of 120 head, against 4 cars and 100 head a week ago and 10 cars, embracing 265 head, two weeks ago. The few cars that were available were a medium class of light steers that sold fully steady. A few odd head of cows and bulls were sold, but at no particular change. Thursday prices furnished the basis to asels the last two days of the week.

The heavy-weight steers have met with a poor reception this week; the demand at all times was for the butcher weights of steers on which sales were negotiated easily and values on such kinds are fully 10% lic higher than a week ago Thursday, while the heavier kinds have shown a decline of 20% lic. Bulls closed the week with values around 10c lower, with she stuff steady. Only one consignment of good calves were available during the week, and they brought good prices.

The week's supply shows up a small increase literateur attempted to commit suicide in Paris theater last evening. Just as the second act of "L'Autre Dan-ger," at the Theater Francals, was about to commence, the audience was startled by the report of a pistol shot in the foyer, where a man was seen to fall with a wound where a man was seen to fall with a wound in his head.

The would-be suicide proved to be a dramatist named Gustav Salary, aged 60 years. He resided at Villejulf, a remote suburb of Paris. He was taken to the hospital, and the builet, which had lodged in a bone near the right eye, was extracted. His life was found to be in no danger.

M. Salary said that he had just had a play rejected by the management of the Theater Francais, after having been given to understand that it would be accepted, and, disheartened, he resolved to end his life in the theater which caused his disappointment.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE SOUTH. Much Credit Is Given to Industrial Agent of Southern Railway.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Washington. March 29.—"The people of the South." said Thomas P. Grasty, vice president of the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore, "owe an enosmous debt of gratitude to M. V. Richards, the wide-awake industrial agent of the Southern Railway. Mr. Richards has done great things for all that big scope of country penetrated by the lines of the Southern system. He has aroused the people of Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama to a realization of the wonderful possibilities of these States.

"He has, moreover, perfected an organization that for efficiency is ahead of any of the great railway corporations of the West. Through his efforts Eastern men desirous of establishing industries in the South have obtained the speedlest, most accurate and comprehensive data and many paying enterprises have been started in the South because of Mr. Richards's labors. His statistics cover the entire field and there is no item of information as to soll, climate and products he cannot supply.

"Best of all, he has caused the Southerners to realize that there are better ways of making money than the old-time plan of speculating in cotton. By pointing out the advantages of co-operation in the establishment of mills to utilize their raw material, the same system that built up. New England Industrially, he has performed a service of incalculable value, and the continuation of that policy is going to make the South eventually one of the richest portions of the continent." GREEK ART CASTS ARRIVE.

Missouri University Now Possesses Some of Best Examples Extant. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Columbia, Mo., March 23.—A large box of casts arrived to-day from Rome to the art department of Missouri University. They consist of some of the finest examples of Greek art extant, and will make a valuable addition to the university art museum, which is now one of the best in the West. One of the pieces is a colossal head of Ludovici's Hera, remarkable for its size and beauty, it being more than four feet high. A bust of the Emperor Augustus a bronze bust of Seneca, the bust of a Roman Empress and a bust of the Greek poetess Sappho are among the collection.

Doctor Pickard, director of art at the university, spent last year in Greece and Rome selecting specimens for the Missouri museum. He visited all the art collections of the Old World and placed orders for a large number of casts in Rome, Bertin and Paris. The casts have been greatly delayed and have reached Columbia in piecemeal. The ones that have just arrived have been on the road seven or eight months and a number of other consignments were shipped last summer.

The art school of the university is making rapid progress, and the added facilities will piace it in the front rank with that of other State universities. There is some talk of a class from the university traveling in Europe next summer studying from the world's famous collections.

ANNIVERSARY OF DISCOVERY OF SPIRITUALISM CELEBRATED

Exercises Conducted Under the Aus pices of the St. Louis Progressive Union.

The Progressive Union of St. Louis cele-brated the fifty-fifth anniversary of the discovery of modern Spiritualism at its headquarters, No. 2739 Locust street, yesterday afternoon. The rooms were elaborately dec orated with yellow and white the colors of the union

Doctor C. Tuckett delivered an address upon "What Has Spiritualism Done for Hu-manity in Fifty-rive Years?" Washington, March 29.—Abraham Lincom is thus far the only man becoming Predident of the United States to whom a patent was ever granted. Patent No. 6669 was 4sued May 22. 189, to Lincoln, a citizen of Springfield, Ill., on a new floating dock, or "came!"

During the early years of his life Liacoln worked on flatboats, which, at that time, controlled a large part of the traffic of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. Neighbors would club together and build a flaboat, load it with corn, flour, bacon or tobacco and float down to New Oricam, where the cargo and barge would be sole, the crew returning to their homes in Illnois, Indiana, Kentucky or Tennessee overland and on foot.

Along about 1845 steamboats began taling the place of these flatboats, although a first they were built somewhat on the same order and often used merely for the same order and often used of the character by sandbars and shallows.
